Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken-down by over-work, exacting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating restorative strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting an abundant nourishment for the child. Expectant mothers too will find it a priceless boon to prepare the system for baby's coming and rendering the ordeal comparatively painless. It can do no harm in any state, or condition of the female system.

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down distress low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have disagreeable, pelvic catarrhal drain, prolapsus, anteversion or retro-version or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and a permanent cure by using faithfully and fairly persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This world-famed specific for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest native, medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients printed in plain English on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of his formula knowing that it will be found to contain only the best agents known to the most advanced medical science of all the different schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

If you want to know more about the composition and professional endorsement of the "Favorite Prescription," send postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same.

You can't afford to accept as a substitute for this remedy of known composition a secret nostrum of unknown composition. Don't do it.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

MR. MACHEN'S SPEECH.

In opening his campaign for renomination at Falls Church, Saturday evening State Senator Lewis H. Machen spoke in part as follows:

It would be much more congenial to my taste to have for discussion a theme more attractive than my own achievements (if any) and aspirations. Ordinarily no man is more offensive than an egotist, and ordinarily no man is more of an egotist than a candidate. Yet circumstances often make it proper and necessary that a candidate should discuss his candidacy in a public manner. There may be a campaign sprung upon him at the eleventh hour, from an unexpected source, and it then becomes impossible for him to speak to the voters separately but must see them in groups, if at all.

Especially if this candidate holds a representative office, to which he was elected by an overwhelming majority after a unanimous nomination, does it become necessary for him to come before the people and demand to know of his opponents why he should be refused a renomination for a second term. As far back as tradition goes it has been the custom to return a senator for a second term if he wanted one. The people of his district should insist upon knowing of what high crimes and misdemeanors their senator has been guilty before they put upon his official record the stamp of their condemnation.

Of course, the people have a right to remove any of their officials for cause but fairness requires that the cause should be stated and the accused official should be given an opportunity to plead to the indictment. If the servants of the people may be discharged without cause there is small inducement for them to render faithful service.

You need not be told that legislation is both a science and an art. It cannot be learned in a day nor in a single session of the legislature. It cannot be thoroughly learned in a senatorial term of four years, or two sessions, but much can be learned in that time. During the first session the new senator finds himself a stranger to all the others and outside of the charmed circle of the seats of the mighty. He finds that the old members know each other, they know the methods and customs of legislation; they do not know him nor do they seem to care especially about him.

They organize the senate and assign themselves to the heads of all the committees and relegate the new ones to the tail end of the same. They insist upon doing all the talking themselves and the new member is expected to regard them with silent but reverent approval. During the second session of his term the senator feels more at home. He is promoted on his committees—but never to the chairmanship. He is permitted a few liberties, such as moving an adjournment or entering a timid remark or two upon pending legislation. But he still cannot take rank with the real leaders. Most of them are serving their third, fourth or fifth terms. With the beginning of his second term, it may be said that his real usefulness to his district and to his State begins.

Other things being equal, it is a good business proposition for a district to return a senator for a second term, at least.

THE EXPOSITION.

The government has no intention to avail itself of its right to assume control of the Jamestown Exposition and run it under the provisions of the act of Congress by which the exposition managers were loaned $1,000,000. It is true that the exposition has failed to make any payments on the dates set forth in the law and that there is scant prospect that the government will ever recover much of the loan. The statement that Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Edwards is now at Jamestown in his official capacity as secretary of the government board and is attempting to collect the money that has now three times fallen due is emphatically denied at the department. Mr. Edwards is at Jamestown purely in his private capacity, except for tomorrow when he will represent the government at the reception to be tendered to Prince Wilhelm of Sweden. Mr. Edwards will probably remain at Jamestown several weeks as he is now enjoying his annual vacation. He has no expectation of collecting a cent of the money.

When the first payment of $100,000 came due on July 1, there was no disposition on the part of the government to cripple the Exposition by a rigid insistence on the letter of the law. The government has nothing to gain by taking the Exposition away from the men who are now making splendid efforts to rescue it from failure. The managers are faithfully paying back to the Treasury Department 40 per cent. of the gross receipts of the fair, and Mr. Cortelyou believes that is all they can do. To take the Exposition and run it would be a sorry undertaking for the government. If Mr. Barr, who is running the great show with the closest economy, cannot make enough money to pay back the government its loan, it is certain that the government would fail. As an official of the Treasury put it: "We are in the position of a man who has loaned $10 on an elephant. We can better afford to lose our loan than to take the security."

The ills peculiar to women, take different forms.

Some ladies suffer, every month, from dark rings round their eyes, blotches on their skin and tired feeling. Others suffer agonies of pain, that words can hardly express.

Whatever the symptoms, remember there is one medicine that will go beyond mere symptoms, and act on the cause of their troubles, the weakened womanly organs.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUG. 21, 1907.

THE hay-fever season is at hand. The sufferers from this malady in this city are noting with trepidation that the golden-rod and other plants have begun to bloom. Ere long the atmosphere will be saturated with the heavy pollen which these plants diffuses, and those whose nasal membranes are sensitive to the dust will begin their protracted annual sneeze. The season lasts from about this time until the first October frost cleans the atmosphere of the obnoxious dust, although the effects of the disease are most virulent between August 25 and September 15, when the plants bloom most luxuriantly. A similar affection, called "rose cold," from the fact that it is supposed to be caused by the pollen of roses, afflicts some people in June, and there are others who suffer considerable discomfort in July during the hay-making season; but probably the greatest number of hay-fever patients are those whose troubles begin at this time of the year. The sufferer from hay fever is a sorry-looking sight. The continued sneezing and the choked-up condition of the usual passages is usually accompanied by a profuse flow of tears, and by a dryness, and an itching, burning sensation in the eyeballs, sometimes so severe that the eyes cannot be used. Insomania is another evil that follows in the wake of the fever. Very often the inflammation passes into the throat and leads to permanent trouble, especially where there is a tendency toward asthma and kindred weaknesses. The remedies that have been suggested for hay fever are legion, but none seems to be effective. Of course those who can go away to some place where the pollen cannot reach them need never suffer with hay fever. But the difficulty is that the season lasts several weeks and many cannot afford to stay away from home and business at this time of the year. A sojourn in the mountains, at an altitude of 1,000 feet or more, almost invariably arrests the disease.

"CERTAIN malefactors of great wealth" and their sympathizers got a blast yesterday from President Roosevelt, which dispelled the last hope that the administration could be forced into acquiescence in corporate wrong by a manufactured panic. Speaking at Provincetown, Mass., he told of pressure that had been brought to bear upon him, but declared that for the remainder of his administration "there will be no change in the policy we have pursued nor let up in the effort to secure the honest observance of the law." To the Wall street charge that he was engaged in a war upon "investors," the President replied in these terms:

We have undertaken and will undertake no actions of a vindicative type, no action which shall inflict unmerited suffering upon the innocent stockholders and the public.

Efforts were made yesterday to drive stocks down again in furtherance of the alleged plot to discredit the President, but it failed. After a slump early in the day there was a sharp rebound, and a flood of small investment orders showed that the President's straightforward announcement had really restored confidence in some degree.

SENATOR TILLMAN, of South Carolina, spent several hours in Washington Court House, O., Monday, after delivering a lecture at Clarksburg, O., on the race question. In an interview he said:

In my opinion Taft will hurt his prospects if he attempts to stand as a stool-pigeon and personal representative of the President. If he stands as the representative of Taft rather than of Roosevelt he will be much stronger before the people. Really, however, I think that the President is after the nomination himself and that his present maneuvering is for the purpose of getting the situation so tied up that a deadlock will result at the republican national convention and that the President hopes and expects it will be stampeded to him, nominate him by acclamation and hand the nomination to him on a silver platter with the assurances from the convention that he is the only man who can lead the republican party and the country out of the wilderness.

Senator Tillman seems able to tell a hen from a hernshaw, even if he has but one eye.

THE "lily white" republicans of Richmond held a meeting Monday night and discussed plans for nominating white candidates for the General Assembly from that city and to encourage republicans in all sections to do the same thing. Why, Mr. Park Agnew, of this city, when he was chairman of the State republican committee, advised this very thing but was called down by the President, who would have none of it, and subsequently removed Mr. Agnew from the position of Collector of Internal Revenue. The Richmond republicans now seem to have started where Mr. Agnew left off but they had better beware of the "big stick."

THE people of Norfolk and vicinity have a real live prince in their midst and are having a royal time with him.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Aug. 21.

"We want to learn what is being done in the way of administering and executing the work of the government at the navy yard," were the words of Representative Foss, chairman of the House committee on naval affairs, as he and several committee associates set sail today from the Washington navy yard for a trip of inspection of eastern navy yards. "It is our belief that we can better arrive at a plan of reorganizing the navy by visiting the yards and learning for ourselves just how work is done than by starting in the department itself," said he. "Our first stop will be at the Norfolk navy yard. At each yard we shall make a thorough inspection, and then call for a conference with the commandant and other officers of each yard to get suggestions as to changes that might bring about improvements in the service." Mr. Foss says that he is not in favor of the United States having the biggest navy in the world, but that he wants to see her have larger ships and smaller fleets.

The Postal Telegraph Company has made an appeal to the War Department for troops to protect its property at Ashfort, Ariz., where the telegraph office was attacked yesterday by armed men who fired numerous shots into the building. In refusing the request it was pointed out that under the laws federal troops cannot be employed in a State or territory except upon the application of the governor and not then unless he says that he has used all the means at his command to prevent disturbances. Should the governor of Arizona reach the conclusion that he cannot handle the situation himself he will report the facts to the President with a request for federal assistance. It will then be for the President to determine whether the occasion is such as to require the use of federal troops.

With reference to the report from London that an agreement has been reached between this government and that of Great Britain for the submission of the Newfoundland fisheries dispute to the Hague court of arbitration for settlement it is declared at the State Department today that the announcement is permature, at least. No agreement has been reached either to submit the general matter to arbitration or to renew the modus vivendi of last year so as to permit fishing to be conducted under its provisions during the season which is just beginning. It is a fact, however, that Ambassador Reid and the British Foreign Office are working along those lines with the idea of bringing about such a solution but nothing has yet been accomplished.

President Gompers has accepted the invitation of a joint committee composed of the two houses of the Massachusetts legislature now making an investigation in regard to labor measures to address that body next Tuesday. On September 4th, he will speak at the Jamestown Exposition.

Secretary of War Taft in a letter to Mrs. Taft says that the news that he receives as to the condition of his mother who is lying ill at Milbury, Mass. is quite encouraging. He gets his information through his brother Horace and it is so different from what is appearing in the newspapers that he is constrained to believe that the published accounts are exaggerated. Unless there is a change for the worse in Mrs. Taft's condition the Secretary will carry out his plans as arranged.

The middle of the second week of the local telegraph strike finds both sides apparently satisfied with existing conditions, although the claim is made by the Western Union management that the strikers are wavering.

THE MILK QUESTION.

Health Officer Woodward of the District of Columbia said yesterday that he does not fully agree with Mr. C. C. Carlin of this city that if a tuberculin test of cows furnishing milk to the District is made compulsory by law the dairymen should be reimbursed for all the cattle which are condemned to be killed. Mr. Carlin had a conference with Dr. Woodward on Monday concerning the question of the tuberculine test. Dr. Woodward said yesterday that he had not yet reached a decision as to the exact nature of the recommendations which should be made to Congress in regard to the question of reimbursement. He was inclined strongly, however, to disagree with Mr. Carlin in this particular, although the other recommendations made by Mr. Carlin as to proper means for obtaining pure milk for the District seemed to meet with the health officer's approval.

In opposing Mr. Carlin's suggestion that dairymen be paid for cattle which are condemned as unhealthy, Dr. Woodward said that there is no longer any excuse for those who furnish milk to cities to have diseased cows in their herds.

WILL FIGHT INJUNCTIONS.

"The executive council of the American Federation of Labor, in placing an unfair firm on the boycott list is exercising one of its innate rights, and all of the injunctions and suits brought against the federation will not cause the council to swerve from its fixed policies," said Samuel Gompers, the president of the American Federation of Labor, yesterday, in discussing the injunction proceedings which have been instituted against the council by the Buck Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis.

"The federation will fight this as well as any similar suits which may be brought against it," Mr. Gompers continued.

Mr. Gompers said that the only two real effective weapons which can be wielded by labor organizations are the strike right and the boycott list.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Aug. 21.—The market was feverish and unsettled from the start, but speculative buying besides some bullish work by the room traders, caused a sort lived rally in the early trading. There was renewed liquidation and this movement large enough to fill all the demand and start a new downward movement, that was in progress at the end of the hour.

Then the market was weak with generally 1 to 2 points below yesterday. Another bearish influence that was freely discussed was the time money situation, but an opinion prevailed that the time money market will work easier as a result of conned liquidation.

Today's Telegraphic News.

France and Germany.

Berlin, Aug. 21.—Relations between France and Germany, never too friendly, promise to become strained through the declarations of refugees from Casablanca that the French were to blame for the recent massacre there.

The general opinion now seems to be that France has attempted to obtain complete domination in Morocco by a bit of sharp practice, under the provision of the Algeciras convention, entrusting the policing of Morocco to France and Spain jointly.

A complete change of sentiment toward France has been caused by the refugees' reports. Although it chafed when they saw their rivals exercising force in Morocco, Germans accepted the view that the landing of an army was necessary.

But the declarations of missionary W. T. Bolton, and other refugees on arriving in England—that France deliberately caused the Moorish outbreak to give her an excuse to interfere—has caused a different view to be taken.

So thoroughly is public sentiment aroused that the government will probably be forced to start an official investigation to determine whether the charges of refugees are true.

If a report unfavorable to France is made Germany will probably demand that France withdraw her troops from Morocco.

That such a demand would be bitterly resented in France, and would strain relations almost to the breaking point, no one doubts.

While France apparently had good excuse for landing strong forces, Germany was willing to accept the inevitable. But if it develops that France forced the issue to give her a pretext to make her demonstrations, Germans will undoubtedly demand an understanding.

Crime in New York.

New York, Aug. 21.—Fearing a renewal of the crime wave, which alarmed the city recently, may follow the unusually brutal murder of Mrs. Lena Scham, a widow, who was killed by a strangler in her own home, every available policemen and detective was put to work today to run down the slayer so that his prompt arrest may act as a deterrent against similar crimes. Already one arrest has been made. Joseph Burk, a butcher, living in the same house, in whose room was found a sharp knife, showing evidences of blood on the blade, is the prisoner. The police admit their case against him is not strong. They will ask that he be held in police court pending further examination. The greatest mystery surrounds the murder. The police say Mrs. Scham was killed by some one who laid in wait for her in her rooms at 1090 Flushing avenue, Brooklyn, and murdered her within fifteen minutes of the time she left a party of friends Sunday night.

The body was not discovered until last night. The woman's skull was crushed in, marks on her throat show where the strangler seized her and a wrist was gashed with a sharp knife. There were no indications of robbery, but the furniture was displaced, evidencing a terrible struggle in the apartments. When the police broke in all the doors were locked. Today inquiry is being made into Mrs. Schsm's past to see if developments will give any possible clue to the murderer.

Prince Praises Army and Navy.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 21.—Prince Wilhelm of Sweden today praised the American army and navy as he saw them at the Jamestown Exposition. "I was particularly impressed with the review of the troops and the naval exhibitions," said the Prince. "I regret that my time will be so limited. I would like to become more closely acquainted with your people. They are kind, considerate and warm-hearted. I like them. The exposition was larger and more beautiful even than I had expected. It is wonderful." The prince was in an excellent humor as he was preparing to start for Newport today. At the social capital he will be the guest of honor at elaborate entertainments.

Norfolk, Va. Aug. 21.—After his short stay here, attending the Jamestown Exposition, Prince Wilhelm of Sweden, King Oscars representative to the great fair, started today for Newport on board the cruiser Fuljia. Death Caused by Worry.

New York, Aug. 21.—Worry over the financial situation is believed by his friends to have hastened the end of Arthur A. Housman, head of the stock exchange house of A. A. Housman & Co., who died early today at Babylon, L. I., his country home. Mr. Housman had been ill since last Sunday. Last night it became apparent he had only a few hours to live and members of his family were summoned. It is known Mr. Housman had been greatly worried by market conditions, and his anxiety is believed by his friends to have brought on the attack which seized him Sunday. Housman was known as one of the J. P. Morgan brokers. He had been a member of the Stock Exchange since 1890.

Norwalk, Conn., Aug. 21.—If Paul McCormack recovers he will have to face a charge of manslaughter. Today Prosecuting Attorney William M. Tammany announced that immediately upon McCormack's recovery, he will be arrested and the charge is expected to be manslaughter. Attempt to Kill Policeman.

Delaware, O., Aug. 21.—Dennis Rowan is in jail today awaiting the result of injuries inflicted by him on Patrolman Charles Ruder, and congratulating himself that he is alive to stand trial. Two years ago, when Rowan was on trial for burglary, he said, referring to Ruder, a witness against him, "I'll kill that man before I die." Last night Ruder was resting in front of the police station, Rowan walked up and fired at him point blank, with a revolver. Ruder escaped into the police station, with a bullet in his arm, and followed by two other bullets, which missed.

As Rowan turned away Rev. H. H. Miller rushed up. Rowan fired at him twice, but his aim was bad. James Spaulding, assistant chief of police, rushed out of a restaurant. Rowan drew another revolver and three times pulled the trigger. The weapon failed to work and Spaulding felled his assailant with a black jack. Spaulding tried to drag his prisoner to the police station. A mob of 500 confronted him. "Give him to us we wont to lynch him," yelled the mob. Spaulding fought his way swinging his black jack and finally landed his prisoner behind the bars. For hours the mob yelled around the jail, then went to bed.

Car Enters Tenement.

New York, Aug. 21.—A car of the New York City Railway Company, which was being repaired yesterday afternoon on the fourth floor of the barn of the 14th street line, at 14th street and Avenue B, came suddenly in contact with the current that had been turned on for shifting cars to other tracks. It started, ran off the end of the track, through two bricks walls, into a six-story tenement house, occupied by twenty-four families, at No. 521 east 14th street. The car poked its forward end several inches into the three room apartment of Rosario Caccamo, an Italian, living with his daughter and two sons on the fifth floor. A panic resulted in the tenement house, men, women and children rushing into the street and up to the roof. Nobody was hurt, however.

A Midnight Struggle.

Mount Holly, N. J., Aug. 21.—A desperate midnight struggle between two prisoners, in which the thin blade of a safety razor was used, took place in the jail here between George Reed Clark and Joseph Misler. Clark, who shot the Thomas J. Barrett, proprietor of the Hotel Roebling, attempted to break out when Misler, who had been told to watch him, cried out: "I am sick," which was a signal to the guards. Seizing the safety razor blade Clark sprang at Misler, saying "You are trying to give me away, are you, I'll cut your throat and mine too." Then followed the terrific struggle which was stopped only when half a dozen guards with drawn revolvers saved Misler. Clark was put in chains.

THE WRIGHT CASE.

Mr. James E. Clements, of the county attorney for John Wright who was in the city yesterday, was asked about the complaint of certain persons touching the delay in the Wright case, and the expenses attending the keeping of the prisoner in jail in Alexandria county, and said:

"Any criticism of Governor Swanson about delay in deciding on the petition for commutation is unjust, and in order to understand the situation I will give you the facts about the case

"Wright was indicted for assault on Mabel Risley, October 15, 1906, and counsel was assigned on October 26 to defend him, and he was tried on the 31st of October. His trial (the trial of a man for his life) will go down in history as the most hurriedly and hastily conducted one on record. Judge Nicol, sitting until 2 o'clock in the morning on the second day of the trial in order to conclude the case, sentenced the prisoner at that late hour to be hung on December 14, 1906, and without allowing any time whatever to prisoner's counsel to argue a motion for a new trial, or present any new and after discovered evidence. And on the eleventh day of December, 1906, (three days before Wright was to be hung) the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia issued a supersedeas and stay of proceedings and kept the case in that court under its consideration until March 14, 1907 when, by a divided court of 3 to 2, they refused a new trial, and on March 22, 1907, as attorney for Wright, I filed a petition for a rehearing of the case in the Supreme Court of Virginia, and a rehearing was refused on March 27th by the same divided Court, 3 to 2. Afterwards the prisoner was resentenced by Judge Barley (without any other trial, of course) to be hung on the 31st of May, 1907, and it was then (about 80 days ago) that Governor Swanson first became officially connected with the case, and reprieved the prisoner until August 30th, 1907. There is nothing unusual about this and the time of extension of ninety days is that invariably taken by a Governor in order to give the important matter of commutation of the death sentence proper consideration and investigation, and there is no ground whatever for any criticism in the matter. It should be remembered that the Governor is a very busy man and has been ever since the opening of the Jamestown Exposition, and many public and important duties are pressing upon him."

In regard to the expense of keeping Wright in jail, Mr. Clements said:

"Several papers in Washington and one in Virginia have lately published the erroneous statement that the cost of maintaining the prisoner in the Alexandria county jail is $150 per month, and the purpose evidently seems to be to prejudice the minds of the people and taxpayers in the county against the prisoner.

"The charge for keeping and supporting a prisoner in jail in Virginia is clearly fixed by statute not to exceed 40c a day, and if there are ten prisoners in jail not to exceed 30c a day. (See section 3532 of the code of Virginia.)

"And it is further provided by law that the jailor, when ordered by the court to do so, or it is in his own opinion necessary for the safe-keeping of the prisoner, shall summon a sufficient guard, and the Circuit Court may allow therefor so much as it deems proper not to exceed $1.00 per day for each man. (See section 4 77 of the code of Virginia.)

"And section 4078 of said code provides that the Circuit Court before certifying any allowance shall inquire into the condition of the jail; if it appears that a guard was necessary, because of the insecurity of the jail, it shall order the allowance paid out of the county levy, but if otherwise and the guard was necessary, the allowance is paid from the State treasury.

"So that $1.00 a day for a guard, if the court held the same to be actually necessary, and 40c a day or $12 a month for maintenance, or a total of $42 a month, is the outside of what the cost of the prisoner should properly be.

"The jail in Alexandria county is a brand new modern jail-building, with powerful steel cages and cells, and known to be perfectly secure, and an extra guard for John Wright, under the law of Virginia, was entirely unnecessary, and therefore the total cost of supporting a prisoner in jail should not exceed $12 per month. If any such charge as $150 per month has been made, it is contrary to law and the statutes of Virginia and I will investigate it and, if true, lay it before the court and grand jury of Alexandria county."

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Mrs. Seville Henyon died at 7 o'clock this morning at the home of her mother, Mrs. William Nalls, No. 701 south Lee street, after a long illness of pulmonary trouble, aged 33 years. She leaves two little daughters.

Mrs. Nannie Wood, widow of Hiram Wood, died at her home, on south Pitt street, last night. The deceased leaves one son (Mr. Wm. H. Wood) and two daughters.

Mrs. Harriet E. Padgett, widow of W. F. Padgett, died at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. R F. Prettyman, 116 south Alfred street, this morning. The deceased was an old and well-known resident. The deceased was a resident of Maryland.

The funeral of Mrs. Julia Davies who died Monday at her home, 1917 Duke street, took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late residence. Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Church, conducted the services.

The funeral of Miss Bridget Mullcair, aged seventy-five, who died Monday at her home on north Fairfax street, took place this morning from St. Mary's Catholic Church. Father Kelly conducted the services, and the interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery. The pallbearers were M. J. Macfarland, Wm. H. Desmond, C. Cummings and James Stewart.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

Richard Pines, colored, who is charged with stealing $200 from William Roberts, driver of a beer wagon, was arrested in Baltimore Monday and brought here yesterday afternoon by Officer Henderson. The accused was arraigned in the Police Court this morning. According to the evidence, Pines induced a son of Mr. Roberts to take money at times from his father's house and turn it over to him. The theft was committed last May. The case was continued for ten days in order that additional evidence may be procured.

A segment of a beautiful rainbow appeared in the southeastern heavens about 7 o'clock yesterday evening.

THE STRANDED STEAMER.

The steamer Norfolk, of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, was still fast aground when the steamer Washington, Capt. Frank Phillips, of the same line, passed Matompkin wharf between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning. As was stated in the Gazette, the Norfolk ran aground shortly after 3 o'clock on the shoals which are located a short distance south of Maryland Point, opposite Stuart's wharf, on the Virginia side of the Potomac. It was raining at the time and a fog had settled over the river.

When the steamer struck she came to a sudden halt.

All of the 365 passengers on board rushed out of their rooms when they felt the sudden jolt and heard the sound of the distress signal, but they were immediately assured there was no danger.

A message was sent to Washington as soon as possible, and a tugboat was dispatched to the assistance of the Norfolk. The tugboat arrived several hours later, but all efforts to pull the stranded steamer into deep water failed. The steamer Newport News later arrived abeam of the Norfolk and snapped several hawsers in futile endeavors to pull her off the shoals.

On her way up from the Jamestown Exposition the steamer Jamestown reached the Norfolk about 6 o'clock yesterday evening She drew up alongside the stranded steamer, gangplanks were thrown across, and in less than two hours all of the passengers from the Norfolk, with their baggage, had been safely transferred to the other boat which reached this city shortly after 11 o'clock, last night.

The stranded boat left Norfolk on Monday evening at 6 o'clock and was provisioned only for the night's run, and after breakfast yesterday morning there was little left in the cook's galley. Everything was finally devoured, and hunger soon began to add to the discomfort of the passengers. Then the water began to get low which augmented the inconveniences of the stranded passengers.

As the Jamestown was pulling away from the Norfolk the steamer St. Johns, from Colonial Beach, came abreast, and there was for a time a race between the two boats. They ran neck and neck for a score a miles, when the Jamestown, which had 900 people aboad, was compelled to slow down to accommodate herself to the narrowing channel, and the St. Johns landed first at Alexandria.

The Jamestown unloaded her passengers at the ferry slip in Washington instead of her usual berth, and the people aboad made a traffic jam at the wharf that the street car companies could not accommodate. They rode on the roofs of cars; overflowed cabs, wagons, and drays, and nearly all wagons in town was pressed into service to get them to their hotels.

The steamer Washington came close to the Norfolk about 3 o'clock this morning, and she, too, snapped several hawsers in the futile attempts to pull the Norfolk off the shoals. The stranded steamer was considerably off her course when she ran on the shoals, and she is well over on the Virginia side. It was high tide when she struck. More attempts were made today to float the steamer.

The Norfolk had not been gotten afloat when last heard from. A tug from the Merritt Wrecking Company, of Norfolk, is assisting her.

THE TUG JUNO.

As was stated in the Gazette, the tug Juno has been purchased from Mr. Park Agnew and others by a Charleston, S. C., firm, and has been made ready for the trip down the coast, which will be made by the Juno under her own steam. The tugboat has been inspected by U. S. steamboat inspectors, and the inspection was satisfactory, the vessel passing all the requirements. The tug Juno will be used in towing work in connection with the building of the new coast artillery station at Charleston. A crew from the latter place started today with the tug.

THE JUDGESHIP.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch publishes a picture of Mr. J. B. T. Thornton, of Prince William, and says: "Monday was a very busy day for Gov. Swanson. He received a number of gentlemen who came to talk over the judgeship situation in the Sixteenth District. It will be recalled that Judge Louis C. Barley, of the Corporation Court of Alexandria city, who was designated by the Governor to serve instead of Judge Charles E. Nicol (resigned), until the convening of the Legislature, has asked to be relieved, and an appointment will have to be made. Though the Governor is not saying positively who he will name, there is a strong impression in circles close to him that the honor will fall to Hon. J. B. T. Thornton, of Prince William. The other aspirant is Mr. John M. Johnson, of Alexandria city. Both candidates filed their indorsements Monday, and the Governor heard a number of gentlemen in their respective interests. He announced just before leaving the city that he would take the matter up and dispose of it upon his return.

The Governor said he had written the friends of both candidates that all other things being equal, if a majority of the bar in the rural sections of the circuit indorsed a county lawyer, he would be inclined to name him over an applicant from the city. He did this in the case of Judge Prentis's successor, for the reason the cities all have judges independently of those on the circuit bench, and he holds that the country districts should have a judge as near as is possible for the transaction of business in vacation. It is believed that this almost certainly indicates the appointment of the Prince William man. Mr. Thornton is regarded as a strong lawyer, and a man of peculiar judicial temperament. He has been Commonwealth's Attorney of Prince William county for many years, and represented that county with distinction in the recent Constitutional Convention. Mr. Thronton in his younger days practiced his profession in Yazoo City, Miss., and was during that period a law partner of Hon. John Sharp Williams, who has recently been nominated by the democrats of his State for United States Senator. Mr. Thornton is a man of high character and exceptional learning, and his supporters declare he will make an ideal judicial officer.

PERSONAL.

THE STANDARD SIDE.

The directors of the Standard Oil Company have issued a pamphlet to its employes and stockholders relative to the fine of $29,240,000 imposed on the Standard Oil Company of Indiana. The pamphlet contains a statement from President Moffett, president of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, and a number of editorial articles favorable to the company taken from various American newspapers. The company says it cannot obtain a square deal and criticises Roosevelt, Judge Landis the federal government and the press.

The charges are:

That Judge Landis refused to admit evidence favorable to the Standard Oil Company.

That the warfare of the federal government against the trust has been persistent and adroit.

That the corporation cannot get a fair hearing before the public and a large portion of the press.

That Roosevelt attacked the trust in order to force legislation through Congress.

That Commissioner of Corporations Garfield rehashed a tissue of misrepresentations.

A Valuable Lesson.

"Six years ago I learned a valuable lesson," writes John Pleasant, of Magnolia, Ind. "I then began taking Dr. King's New Life Pills, and the longer I take them the better I find them." They please everybody. Guarantee at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 25c.

A PROTRACTED SPREE.

A genuine sensation was sprung in Pittsburg, Pa., yesterday, when Mrs. Catherine McDermott, wife of Thos. McDermott, a very wealthy resident of Glenfield, a suburb, filed papers in court asking that her husband be declared a habitual drunkard and that his immense estate be turned over to her for handling. McDermott is 61 years of age, and is supposed to be worth $1,000,000. His wife alleges in her bill that he has not drawn one sober breath in the 39 years she has known him, and of late he has become childish and extravagant. The wife specifies that the husband is building a modern Coney Island and a Luna Park for his own individual enjoyment on the back part of his immense estate, also an immense pavilion, covering several acres, and that he threatened to shoot her some time ago when she laughed at his ideas on outdoor sports. It is alleged McDermott has spent $35,000 on his private park.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptons only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

TESTED FAITH WITH SNAKES.

Rev. William Grabb, pastor of the Church of the First Born, in Nashville, Ind., is creating intense excitement throughout Brown county by adding hundreds of persons to his flock by demonstrating the truth of his creed with rattlesnakes. He declares that nothing can bring harm to true believers, and said he could handle any kind of a reptile without injury to himself under the Divine protection which he claims is ever about him. In order to test his faith rattlesnakes caught in the woods but a few days ago were taken to the church, and he was asked to prove his sincerity. He took them out of the box, wrapped them about his neck and thus adorned exhorted his hearers. Every sinner in the audience went to the mourners' bench as a result of the demonstration.

Neighbors Got Fooled.

"I was literally coughing myself to death, and had become too weak to leave my bed; and neighbors predicted that I would never leave it alive; but they got fooled, for thanks be to God, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It took just four one dollar bottles to completely cure the cough and restore me to good sound health," writes Mrs. Eva Uncapher, of Grovertown, Stark Co., Ind. This King of cough and cold cures, and healer of throat and lungs, is guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

CANDIDATES.

Senator Machen Asks Renomination.

To the Democrats of the Fourteenth Senatorial District:

I hereby announce that I shall seek a renomination as State Senator at the democratic primary September 10th.

For many years it has been the custom in this district to return a Senator for a second term if he so desired, and I trust that a careful scrutiny of my official record will not disclose any reason for violating this custom at this time.

Having been a resident of Alexandria for more than 5 years, and having been for a much longer period associated in business and otherwise with the people of the city, it is natural to suppose that I understand its needs and could serve its interests in the legislature as well as some one who is not a resident and has had no legislative experience. I solicit the generous support of my home city.

Respectfully,
aug16 td LEWIS H. MACHEN.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 14TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT. I respectfully announce myself a candidate for State Senate in the democratic primary September 10th, 1907. ALEX. J. WEDDERBURN.

FOR STATE SENATE.

To the Democratic voters of the 14th Senatorial district:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Senator from the 14th Senatorial District of Virginia, subject to the democratic primary to be held on September 10, 1907, and if nominated and elected, I pledge myself to the service of the best interests of the district and State. Very Respectfully,

R. E. THORNTON.
Fairfax, Va., Aug. 17.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF ALEXANDRIA CITY AND COUNTY:

I respectfully announce that I will be a candidate for re-election to the House of Delegates of Virginia, subject to the decision of the democratic primary to be held on the 10th day of September, 1907. I beg to express my sincere appreciation of the confidence expressed by my fellow citizens in conferring this honor upon me for three successive terms, and to assure them, if re-elected, that, as I have in the past, I will in the future devote my best energies and abilities to represent faithfully the interests of the constituency which has so often honored me.
